SAYLOR COMPANY

PUBLIC RELATIONS COUNSEL

August 9, 2007

Gary Klein
DLA Piper
1200 Nineteenth Street, NW
Washington, DC 20036-2412

Dear Mr. Klein:

This letter, when accepted by you below on behalf of the Government of Ethiopia ("Client") and accepted by DLA Piper ("Attorney"), as counsel for the Client, will constitute the agreement with respect to the engagement of Mark Saylor Company LLC, a California entity ("Saylor Company"), on the following terms and conditions:

1. The Client and Attorney, as counsel for the Client, have retained Saylor Company to provide advice and public relations services effective as of July 23, 2007, for an initial period of six months, which services are intended to facilitate Client in seeking and Attorney in providing legal advice.
2. Saylor Company's time charges will be billed at the hourly rate range of $150 to $450 depending on the person performing the services (a discount of 10% from standard billing rates). Fees will be billed monthly and are payable within thirty days after the date of the invoice. Charges are computed on a portal-to-portal basis for any travel time for meetings held outside of Saylor Company's offices. Time is billed by Saylor Company in increments of one-quarter of an hour. Client's obligation to pay Saylor Company for time charged is not contingent upon obtaining any particular result(s) or on the outcome of any litigation Attorney is handling for Client.

Please review our invoices each month upon receipt. If you have any questions, please feel free to call. However, unless you make some objection to Saylor Company in writing within thirty (30) days of the invoice date, it will be presumed that you have no objections to it and agree to the reasonableness of the invoice.

3. The Client shall seek to reimburse Saylor Company within thirty (30) days of invoice date for any and all out of pocket costs and expenses incurred by Saylor Company in connection with its engagement hereunder, including without limitation, travel costs, production costs, long distance and photocopy charges, and other out-of-pocket costs and expenses. Client's obligation to reimburse Saylor Company is not contingent upon obtaining any particular result(s) or on the outcome of any matter for Client.

4. Although Saylor Company's invoices in the ordinary course will be transmitted to Attorney as agent for Client rather than directly to Client, Saylor Company acknowledges that its services being provided pursuant to this letter agreement are for the benefit of Client and that Attorney, as Client's counsel, shall not be responsible for any fees, costs or expenses incurred in connection with Saylor Company's services.
5. Saylor Company's engagement hereunder may be terminated by either party on 30 days prior written notice. All provisions of this letter relating to the payment of fees and expenses and indemnification will survive any termination of the engagement by either party. All the provisions of this letter contained in paragraphs 6, 7, 8 and 9 will survive for a period of two years following the date of any termination of the engagement by either party.
6. In the event any employee of Saylor Company, at any time is required or requested to participate or provide testimony, documents or other evidence in any action, arbitration or other proceeding relating, directly or indirectly, to our engagement, whether or not our engagement has been terminated, the Client shall pay Saylor Company for the time spent in preparing for and providing such participation or testimony, at Saylor Company's then standard billing rates, and for any costs and expenses, including attorneys fees, incurred in connection therewith.
7. Client agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Saylor Company, its shareholders, officers, directors, employees and agents (each such entity or person being referred to as an "Indemnified Person") from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs and expenses (including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees) which any Indemnified Person may be subject to or incur in connection with the services rendered by Saylor Company to Client and/or Attorney. This paragraph shall not apply to any such losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs or expenses of any Indemnified Person that are judicially determined to have resulted from Saylor Company's or such other Indemnified Person's gross negligence or willful misconduct.
8. Each of the parties hereto agrees to keep this letter agreement, and the terms and conditions hereof, including billing statements and time sheets, strictly confidential, except only as may be necessary to enforce this letter. All communications, correspondence, instruments and writings between Saylor Company and Attorney shall be deemed to constitute attorney work-product and otherwise protected by the attorney-Client privilege. Each of the parties agrees not to solicit for employment, or employ, any employee of the other during the pending of Saylor Company's engagement and for a period of two years thereafter.

9. If an action is commenced to enforce any provision of this letter agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorney fees. Any controversy, claim or dispute relating to this letter agreement shall be resolved by binding arbitration in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association pursuant to an arbitration conducted in Los Angeles County, California. Judgment upon such arbitration may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.
10. This letter agreement shall be interpreted and enforced in accordance with the substantive internal laws of the State of California applicable to contracts made and to be performed therein, without regard to conflicts of laws principles.
11. In the event that one or more of the provisions contained herein are held to be invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of the contract is severable therefrom and will continue in full force and effect.
12. Neither this agreement, nor any rights or obligations arising hereunder, may be transferred or assigned by either party without the prior written consent of the other party, which consent may be granted, withheld or conditioned in such party's sole, subjective discretion.

Best Regards,
Mark Saylor
